WINE, BEER & SPIRITS LAW

Now in the Pacific Northwest!

September 14-15, 2017 • The Benson • Portland, OR

Connect with Over 100 of Your Fellow Professionals from Around the Country!

Dear Colleague:

The picturesque Pacific Northwest is home to this year's Wine, Beer & Spirits Law Conference.

Don't miss your chance to experience Oregon's exquisite wine country, and the city of Portland's thriving craft beer and small batch distillery scenes, all while amassing critical information and valuable insights on these important topics:

- TTB Update
- State Regulators Panel
- How Marijuana Interacts with the Alcohol Industry
- Trade Practice Developments
- When Is a Wine Not a Wine?
- Crisis Management
- What the Heck Is a Hard Seltzer?
- Alcohol Regulatory & Distribution Issues in the Transactional Context
- Trends in Retailer Liability
- Frequent Subtopics in Supplier-Distributor Litigation
- Producers Making Retail Sales - Expanding the Market or Threat to Competition?
- Recent Industry Trademark Developments
- Private Label Legal Issues
- ... and more!

Registration and Breakfast on Thursday morning, sponsored by:

Don't miss Thursday evening's Private Networking Reception, sponsored by:

Oregon is the second largest hop growing state in the US and boasts roughly 230 brewing companies. The state is also a world-class wine region. Over 700 wineries and more than 1,000 vineyards growing 72 grape varieties, make Oregon the third largest wine grape producing state in the country, yet it still remains focused on producing small-batch artisan wine.

Come for the conference, and stay for the weekend! We look forward to seeing you in Portland.

Sincerely,

James M. Seff, Esq.
